Dear

STAT

I can't thank you enough for suggesting that I deliver the Green Lecture at Westminster, for taking the trip with us, and for your more than generous introduction.

It was great fun for all of us to spend the weekend with you.  added greatly to the fun and liveliness of the occasion. I can't wait to read what she writes about you. On that score, I'd appreciate you having your secretary send me a copy of your introduction. I am not often introduced with such gusto, such lavish praise or such eloquence.

STAT

I am enclosing a clean copy of my speech which you don't want to read again. But I did add a historical postscript which relates events today with those occurring when Churchill made his Westminster speech and draws a comparison between the President's current actions and those of Harry Truman at the time of the Churchill speech and the promulgation of the Truman Doctrine. I think you will like the postscript.

With much love.

Yours,

William J. Casey
